Commodore's Report

I hope every one had good Christmas and I want to wish everyone a great 2009. I also want to thank the entertainment committee on a wonderful job at the kids Christmas party; my daughter and the other kids really had a great time. The food at the adult party was great; they really did a good job. Just a reminder to everyone that dues were due January 1st, and the vice commodore is hosting a trivia night January 17; details will follow.

Have fun and see you soon,
Tim Morton

Vice Commodore's Report

Happy New Year everyone, may it be your best one yet! I am happy to report that things at the bar are looking great for the New Year. We have had our first two bartender training meetings with almost 100% attendance. You may have noticed that some of our bartenders are now mixing a nice martini or fancy mixed drink. We now have a nice assortment of flavored vodkas. Come down and try a root beer or espresso martini (yummy). If you want something a little different that looks fluorescent in your glass and tastes great try our drink of the month "The Blue Smurf".

Also our conversion to glassware seems to be going well. We have less trash at the end of the night, not too many have been broken; we are helping the environment and giving our members a quality experience!

On another note, a complete review of bar costs and prices was also completed. As some of you may or may not know, our alcohol costs have been on the rise and prices have not changed at our bar for seven years. On some items we lose money or make close to zero dollars. After much consideration, we have been able to keep mixed drink prices the same, but will be raising draft beer and wine prices. Pints of beer will now be $2.00 and a glass of wine will be $4.00. Please keep in mind our prices across the board are much, much lower than any bar, even with the increase. But to ease the pain, starting in January we will be having "Happy Hour" every Friday from 8 to 9PM - featuring $1.00 pints and $1.00 off all mixed drinks and wine.

This month we will have a Trivia Night on Saturday the 17th. More information will be emailed shortly, so start getting your team together.

Finally, just a reminder, please only bartenders behind the bar. If you have any feedback or need to contact me you know where I am, but just in case my cell is 609-923-0963, email Silver02ta@aol.com.

Slainte!
Melanie

Rear Commodore's Report

Eighty-Six more days until the docks open, and only fifty-seven days until the dock applications are due. The 2009 dock applications can be found on our website, as well as at the club. The version on the web site can be filled out online, but must be printed once you fill it out. The data you enter cannot be saved.

If you are a new applicant on the dock, and have any questions, please contact me. Remember any application received after the close of the March Membership meeting will not be considered for permanent dockage for the 2009 season.

Dock applications can be placed in the Rear Commodore's mail box at the club or mailed to me at home or the club address.

Some dates to keep in mind for March:
March 2nd, last day for dock applications
March 13th, Preliminary Dock Layout
March 15th, Pre Work Party
March 20th, Bumping Party
March 21st & 22nd Work Party
March 28th & 29th Work Party

As always, if you see something that needs to be fixed at the club please let me know so I can address it.

Scott

Cruising Corner - Fleet Captain Report

Plans for the 2009 Atlantic City International Power Boat show are underway. The Boat Show will be Feb. 4th -8th - there will be a bus trip on the final day of the boat show; details will be done by the December BYC general membership meeting and followed up with a reminder email.
